The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	200,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Cheau	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

VALEDICTORY FROM PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

Review of Political Events for the Past Four Years.

To the People of the United States:

The robe of office, by constitutional limitation, this day falls from my shoulders, to be immediately assumed by my successor. For him the forbearance and co-operation of the American people, in all his efforts to administer the government within the pale of the Federal Constitution, are sincerely invoked. Without ambition to gratify, party ends to subserve, or personal quarrels to avenge, at the sacrifice of the peace and welfare of the country, my earnest desire is to see the Constitution of the republic again recognized and obeyed as the supreme law of the land, and the whole people, North, South, East, and West prosperous and happy under its wise provisions.

In surrendering the high office to which I was called four years ago, at a memorable and terrible crisis, it is my privilege, I trust, to say to the people of the United States a few parting words in vindication of an official course so ceaselessly assailed and aspersed by political leaders, to whose plans and wishes my policy to restore the Union has been obnoxious. In a period of difficulty and turmoil almost without precedent in the history of any people, consequent upon the closing scenes of a great rebellion and the assassination of the then President, it was, perhaps, too much on my part to expect of devoted partisans, who rode on the waves of excitement, which at that time swept all before them, that degree of toleration and magnanimity which I sought to recommend and enforce, and which I believe in good time would have advanced us infinitely further on the road to permanent peace and prosperity than we have thus far attained. Doubtless, had I at the commencement of my term of office unhesitatingly lent its powers or perverted them to purposes and plans outside of the Constitution, and become an instrument to a scheme of confiscation and of general and oppressive disqualification, I would have been hailed as all that was true, loyal, and discerning; as the reliable head of a party, whatever I might have been as the Executive of a nation. Unwilling, however, to accede to propositions of extremists, and bound to obey at every personal hazard my oath to defend the Constitution, I need not, perhaps, be surprised at having met the fate of others, whose only rewards for upholding constitutional rights and laws have been the consciousness of having attempted to do their duty, and the calm judgment of history. At the time that a mysterious Providence assigned to me the office of President, I was, by the terms of the Constitution, the commander-in-chief of nearly a million of men under arms. One of my first acts was to disband and restore to the vocations of civil life this immense host, and to divert myself, so far as I could, of the unparalleled powers then incident to the office and the times. Whether, or not, in this step I was right, and how far deserving of the approbation of all the people, all can now, on reflection, judge, when reminded of the ruinous condition of public affairs that must have resulted from the continuance in the military service of such a vast number of men. The close of our domestic conflict found the army eager to distinguish itself in a new field by an effort to punish European intervention in Mexico. By many it was believed and urged that, aside from the assumed justice of the proceedings, a foreign war, in which both sides would cheerfully unite to vindicate the honor of the national flag, and further illustrate the national prowess, would be the surest and speediest way of awakening national enthusiasm, renewing devotion to the Union, and occupying a force concerning which grave doubts existed as to its willingness, after four years of active campaigning, at once to return to the pursuits of peace. Whether these speculations were true or false, it will be conceded that they existed, and that the predictions of the army were for the time being in the direction indicated. Taking advantage of that feeling, it would have been easy, as the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, and with all the power and patronage of the Presidential office at my disposal, to turn the concentrated strength of the nation against French interference in Mexico, and to inaugurate a movement which would have been received with favor by the military and a large portion of the people. It is proper in this connection that I should refer to the almost unlimited additional powers tendered to the Executive by the measures relating to Civil rights and the Freedmen's Bureau. Contrary to most precedents in the experiences of public men, the powers thus placed within my grasp were declined as being in violation of the Constitution, dangerous to the liberties of the people, and tending to aggravate rather than lessen the discords naturally resulting from our civil war. With a large army and augmented authority, it would have been no difficult task to direct at pleasure the destinies of the Republic, and to make secure my continuance in the highest office known to our laws. Let the people, whom I am addressing from the Presidential chair during the closing hours of a laborious term, consider how different would have been their present condition had I yielded to the dazzling temptation of foreign conquest, of personal aggrandizement and the desire to wield additional power. Let them, with justice, consider that if I have not unduly magnified mine office, the public burdens have not been increased by my acts, and perhaps thousands or tens of thousands of lives sacrificed to visions of false glory. It cannot, therefore, be charged that my ambition has been of that ordinary or criminal kind which to the detriment of the people's rights and liberties ever seeks to grasp more and unwarranted power, and, to accomplish its purposes, panders too often to popular prejudices and party aims. What then have been the aspirations which guided me in my official acts?

Those acts need not at this time an elaborate explanation. They have elsewhere been comprehensively stated and fully discussed, and become a part of the nation's history. By them I am ready to be judged, knowing that, however, imperfect, they at least show to the impartial mind, that my sole ambition has been to restore the Union of the States; faithfully to execute the office of President, and to the best of my ability to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution. I cannot be censured if my efforts have been impeded in the interests of party faction, and if a policy which was intended to reassure and conciliate the people of both sections of the country was made the occasion of inflaming and dividing still farther those who only recently were in arms against each other, yet as individuals and citizens were sincerely desirous, as I shall ever believe, of burying all hostile feeling in the grave of the past. The bitter war was waged on the part of the government to vindicate the Constitution and save the Union; and if I have erred in trying to bring about a more speedy and lasting peace, to extinguish heart-burnings and enmities, and to prevent trouble in the South, which, retarding material prosperity in that region, injuriously affected the whole country, I am quite content to rest my case with the more deliberate judgment of the people and, as I have already intimated, with the distant future. The war, all must remember, was a stupendous and deplorable mistake. Neither side understood the other; and, had this simple fact and its conclusions been kept in view, all that was needed was accomplished by the acknowledgment of the terrible wrong and the expression of better feeling and earnest endeavor at atonement shown and felt.

In the prompt ratification of constitutional amendments by the Southern States at the close of the war, not accepting the war as a confessed false step on the part of those who inaugurated it, was an error which now time only can cure, and which even at this late date we should endeavor to palliate. Experiencing, moreover, as all have done, the frightful cost of the arbitrament of the sword, let us in the future cling closer than ever to the Constitution as our only safeguard. It is to be hoped that not until the burdens now pressing upon us with such fearful weight are removed will our people forget the lessons of the war, and that remembering them, from whatever cause, peace between sections and States may be perpetual.

The history of late events in our country, as well as of the greatest governments of ancient and modern times, teaches that we have everything to fear from a departure from the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and the undue ascendancy of men allowed to assume power in what are considered desperate emergencies. Sylla, on becoming master of Rome, at once adopted measures to crush his enemies and to consolidate the power of his party. He established military colonies throughout Italy; deprived of the full Roman franchise the inhabitants of the Italian towns who had opposed his usurpation, confiscated their lands and gave them to his soldiers; and conferred citizenship upon a great number of slaves belonging to those who had proscribed him, thus creating at Rome a kind of body-guard for his protection. After having given Rome over to slaughter and tyrannized beyond all example over those opposed to him and the legions, his terrible instrument of wrong, Sylla could yet feel safe in laying down the ensigns of power so dreadfully abused, and in mingling freely with the families and friends of his myriad victims. The fear which he had inspired continued after his voluntary abdication, and even in retirement his will was law to a people who had permitted themselves to be enslaved. What but a subtle knowledge and conviction that the Roman people had become changed, discouraged, and utterly broken in spirits could have induced this daring assumption? What but public indifference to consequences so terrible as to leave Rome open to every calamity which subsequently befel her, could have justified the conclusions of the dictator and tyrant in his startling experiment? We find that in the time which has since elapsed human nature and exigencies in governments have not greatly changed. Who, a few years ago, in contemplating our future, could have supposed that, in a brief period of bitter experience, everything demanded in the name of military emergency or dictated by caprice would come to be considered as mere matters of course: That conscription, confiscation, loss of personal liberty, and the subjection of States to military rule and disfranchisement, with the extension of the right of suffrage merely to accomplish party ends, would receive the passive submission, if not acquiescence, of the people of the republic! It has been clearly demonstrated by recent occurrences that encroachments upon the Constitution cannot be prevented by the President, however devoted or determined he may be. That unless the people interpose there is no power under the Constitution to check a dominant majority of two-thirds of the Congress of the United States. An appeal to the nation is attended with too much delay to meet emergency; while, if left free to act, the people would correct, in time, such evils as might follow legislative usurpation.

There is danger that the same power which disregards the Constitution will deprive them of the right to change their rulers, except by revolution. We have already seen the jurisdiction of the judiciary circumscribed when it was apprehended that the courts would decide against laws having for their sole object the supremacy of party; while the veto power lodged in the Executive by the Constitution for the interest and protection of the people, and exercised by Washington and his successors, has been rendered nugatory by a partisan majority of two-thirds in each branch of the National Legislature.

The Constitution evidently contemplates that when a bill is returned with the President's objections, it will be calmly reconsidered by Congress. Such, however, has not been the practice under the present party rule. It has become evident that men who passed a bill under partisan influence are not likely through patriotic motives to admit their error, and thereby weaken their own organizations by solemnly confessing it under the official oath. Pride of opinion, if nothing else, has intervened and prevented a calm and dispassionate reconsideration of a bill disapproved be the Executive. Much as I venerate the Constitution, it must be admitted that this condition of affairs has developed a defect which, under the aggressive tendency of the Legislative department of the government, may readily work its overthrow. It may, however, be remedied without disturbing the harmony of the instrument. The veto power is generally exercised upon constitutional grounds, and whenever it is so applied, and the bill returned with the Executive's reasons for withholding his signature, it ought to be immediately certified to the Supreme Court of the United States for its decision. If its constitutionality shall be declared by that tribunal, it should then become a law. But if the decision is otherwise, it should fail, without power in Congres to re-enact and make it valid. In cases in which the veto rests upon hasty and inconsiderate legislation, and in which no constitutional question is involved, I would not change the fundamental law, for, in such cases no permanent evil can be incorporated into the Federal system. It is obvious that without such an amendment, the government, as it existed under the Constitution prior to the rebellion, may be wholly subverted and overthrown by a two-thirds majority in Congress. It is not, therefore, difficult to see how easily and how rapidly the people may lose (shall I not say —have lost?) their liberties by an unchecked and uncontrollable majority in the law-making power; and whenever deprived of their rights, how powerless they are to regain them.

Let us turn for a moment to the history of the majority in Congress, which has acted in such utter disregard of the Constitution, while public attention has been carefully and constantly turned to the past and expiated sins of the South, and the servants of the people in high places have boldly betrayed their trust, broken their oaths of obedience to the Constitution, and undermined the very foundations of liberty, justice, and good government. When the rebellion was being suppressed by the volunteered services of patriot soldiers, amid the dangers of the battle-field, these men crept, without question, into place and power in the national councils. After all danger had passed, when no armed foe remained—when a penitent people bowed their heads to the flag, and renewed their allegiance to the Government of the United States, then it was the pretended patriots appeared before the nation and began to prate about the thousands of lives and millions of treasure sacrificed in the supression of the rebellion. They have since persistently sought to inflame the prejudices engendered between the sections, to retard the restoration of peace and harmony, and by every means to keep open and exposed to the poisonous breath of party passion the terrible wonders of a four years' war. They have prevented the return of peace and the restoration of the Union; in every way rendered delusive the purposes, promises, and pledges by which the army was marshalled, treason rebuked, and rebellion crushed; and made the liberties of the people, and the rights and powers of the President, subjects of constant attack. They have wrested from the President his Constitutional power of supreme command of the army and navy; they have destroyed the strength and efficiency of the Executive Department by making subordinate officers independent of and able to defy their chief: they have attempted to place the President under the powers of a bold, defiant, and treacherous Cabinet officer; they have robbed the Executive of the prerogative of pardon, rendered null and void acts of clemency granted to thousands of persons under the provisions of the Constitution, and committed gross usurpation by legislative attempts to exercise this power in favor of party adherents. They have conspired to change the system of our government by preferring charges against the President in the form of articles of impeachment, and contemplating before hearing or trial that he should be placed in arrest, held in durance, and when it became their pleasure to pronounce his sentence, driven from place and power in disgrace. They have, in time of peace, increased the national debt by a reckless expenditure of the public moneys, and thus added to the burdens which already weigh upon the people. They have permitted the nation to suffer the evils of a deranged currency to the enhancement in price of all the necessaries of life. They have maintained a large standing army for the enforcement of their measure of oppression. They have engaged in class legislation, and built up and encouraged monopolies, that the few might be enriched at the expense of the many. They have failed to act upon important treaties, thereby endangering our present peaceful relations with foreign powers.—Their course of usurpation has not been limited to inroads upon the Executive Department. By unconstitutional and oppressive enactments the people of ten States of the Union have been reduced to a condition more intolerable than that from which the patriots of the Revolution rebelled. Millions of American citizens can now say of their oppressors with more truth than our fathers did of British tyrants, that they have "forbidden the governments to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance unless suspended until their assent should be obtained:" that they have "refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature," a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only; that they have "made judges dependent upon their will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries;" that they have erected a multitude of new offices that sent hither swarms of officers to harrass our people and eat out their substance. That they have affected to render the military independent and superior to the civil power; combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our Constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; quartered large bodies of armed troops among us; protected them by a mock trial from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states; imposed taxes upon us without our consent; deprived us in many cases of the benefit of trial by jury; taken away our charters; incited domestic insurrection amongst us: abolished our most valuable laws; altered fundamentally the form of our government; suspended our own legislatures and declared themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

This catalogue of crime, long as it is, is not yet complete. The Constitution vests the judicial power of the United States in one Supreme Court, whose jurisdiction shall extend to all cases arising under the Constitution and the laws of the United States.—Encouraged by this promise of a refuge from tyranny, a citizen of the United States, who by the order of a military commander, given under the sanction of a cruel and deliberate edict of Congress, had been denied the Constitutional rights of liberty of conscience, freedom of the press, and of speech, personal freedom from military arrest, of being held to answer for crime only upon presentment of an indictment, of trial by jury, of the writ of habeas corpus, and the protection of a civil and constitutional government—a citizen thus deeply wronged, appeals to the Supreme Court for the protection guaranteed him by the organic law of the land. At once a fierce and excited majority, by the ruthless hand of logislative power, stripped the ermine from the judges, transferred the sword of justice to the General, and remanded the oppressed citizen to a degradation and bondage worse than death.

It will also be recorded as one of the marvels of the times that a party claiming for itself a monopoly of consistency and patriotism, and boasting of its unlimited sway, endeavored by a costly and deliberate trial to impeach one who defended the Constitution and the Union, not only throughout the war of the rebellion, but during the whole term of office as chief magistrate; but at the same time could find no warrant or means at their command to bring to trial even the chief of the rebellion. Indeed the remarkable failures in this case were so often repeated that, for propriety's sake, if for no other reason, it became at last necessary to extend to him an unconditional pardon. What more plainly than this illustrates the extremity of party management and inconsistency on the one hand, and of faction, vindictiveness, and intolerance on the other. Patriotism will hardly be encouraged when, in such a record, it sees that its instant reward may be most virulent party abuse and obloquy, if not attempted disgrace. Instead of seeking to make treason odious, it would in truth seem to have been their purpose rather to make the defence of the Constitution and Union a crime, and to punish fidelity to an oath of office, if counter to party dictation, by all the means at their command.

Happily for the peace of the country, the war has determined against the assumed power of the States to withdraw at pleasure from the Union. The institution of slavery also found its destruction in a rebellion commenced in its interest. It should be borne in mind, however, that the war neither impaired nor destroyed the constitution, but on the contrary, preserved its existence, and made apparant its real power and enduring strength. All the rights granted to the States or reserved to the people are, therefore, inact. Among those rights is that of the people of each State to declare the qualifications of their own State electors. It is now assumed that congress can control this vital right, which can never be taken away from the States without impairing the fundamental principles of the government itself. It is necessary to the existence of the States as well as the protection of the liberties of the people; for the right to select the elector in whom the political power of the State shall be lodged involves the right of the State to govern itself. When deprived of this perogative, the States will have no power worth retaining. All will be gone, and they will be subjected to the arbitrary will of Congress. The government will then be centralized if not by the passage of laws, then by the adoption, through partizan influence, of an amendment directly in conflict with the original design of the constitution. This proves how necessary it is the people should require the administration of the three great departments of the government to be strictly within the limits of the Constitution. Their boundaries have been accurately defined, and neither should be allowed to trespass on the other, nor above all, to encroach upon the reserved rights of the people and the States. The troubles of the past four years will prove to the nation blessings, if they produce so desirable a result. Upon those who became young men amid the sound of cannon and the din of arms, and who quietly returned to the farms, the factories, and the schools of the land will principally devolve the solemn duty of perpetuating the Union of the States, in defence of which hundreds of thousands of their comrades expired and hundreds of millions of national obligations were incurred. A manly people will not neglect the training necessary to resist aggression, but they should be zealous lest the civil be made subordinate to the military element. We need to encourage in every ligitimate way a study of the Constitution for which the war was waged, a knowledge of, and reverence for, whose wise checks, by those so soon to occuppy the places filled by their seniors, will be the only hope of preserving the Republic. The young men of the nation not yet under the control of party must resist the tendency to centralization, an outgrown of the great rebellion, and be familiar with the fact that the country consists of the "United States," and that when the States surrendered certain great rights for the sake of a more perfect Union, they retained rights as valuable and important as those they relinquished for the common weal. This sound old doctrine, far different from the teachings that led to the attempt to secede, and a kindred theory that the States were taken out of the Union by the rash acts of conspirators that happened to dwell within their borders, must be received and advocated with the enthusiasm of early manhood, or the People will be ruled by corrupt combinations at the commercial centres, which plethoric from wealth, annually migrate to the capital of the nation to purchase special legislation. Until the representatives of the people in Congrss more fully exhibit the diverse views and the interests of the whole nation, and laws cease to be made without full discussion at the behest of some party leader, there will never be a proper respect shown by the law-making power either to the judicial or executive branch of the government. The generation just begining to use the ballot box, it is believed, only need that their attention should be called to these considerations to indicate by their votes that they wish their representatives to obsere all the restraints which the people, in adopting the Constitution, intended to impose on party excess.

Camly reviewing my administration of the government, I feel that (with a sense of accountablity to God—having conscientiously endeavored to discharged my whole duty), I have nothing to regret. Events have proved the correctness of the policy set forth in my first and subsequent messages. The woes which have followed the rejection of forebearance, magnanimity and constitutional rule are known and deplored by the nation. It is a matter of pride and gratification, in retiring from the most exalted position in the gift of a free people, to feel and know that in a long, arduous and eventful public life my action has never been influenced by desire for gain, and that I can, in all sincerity, inquire, whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or at whose hand have I received any bribe to blind my eyes therewith? No responsibility for wars that have been waged, or blood that has been shed, rests upon me. My thoughts have been those of, peace and my effort has ever been to allay contentions among my countrymen.

Forgetting the past, let us return to the first principles of the government, and unfurling the banner of our country, inscribe upon it in ineffaceable characters, "The Constitution and Union, one and inseparable."

ANDREW J OHNSON.

Washington, D. C. March 4, 1869.

CHEAP APPLES.—A Maine man who raises a large quantity of fine apples sells them at a fixed price, fifty cents a bushel. He will take neither more nor less. He might readily get from one to two dollars per bushel, according to quality, but refuses to do so, alleging that they are not worth more than he asks for them. He will not dispose of his whole crop to apple merchants, his largest sales being limited to four or five bushels to any one customer. We would like to see that apple man in Bedford.

An Israelite lady, sitting in the same box at the opera with a French physician, and being troubled with ennui, happened to gape. "Excuse me madam," said the doctor; "I am glad you didn't swallow me." "Give yourself no uneasiness," replied the lady; "I am a Jewess, and never eat pork!"

A boy relating how his father had just come in from hunting, and bragged of having killed nine hundred and ninety nine pigeons at one shot.—"Why didn't he call it a thousand?" asked a by-stander. "Good Gracious" said the boy, "do you think my father would tell a lie just for one pigeon."

THE SNAP JUDGMENT.

Notwithstanding the solemn asseverations of the radical leaders, and in spite of the deliberate promise contained in the Chicago Platform, that no change in the rule of suffrage in the "loyal States," should be made except by the people of those States themselves, these leaders are now engaged in rushing through the legislatures in which their party is in a majority, the proposed XVth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which not only changes the rule of suffrage so as to admit the negro to its exercise, but takes away forever from the people the right and the power to regulate the suffrage question for themselves. That right and that power were reserved to the people at the formation of the government and their surrender was never dreamed of until now. This XVth Amendment is not objected to so much because it extends the elective franchise to a new class of voters, as because it takes from the people and vests in the federal government all authority over the matter of suffrage. Against this good men of all parties unite in solemn and emphatic protest. During the past two weeks remonstrances signed by fifty thousand of the freemen of Pennsylvania, at least one half of them Republicans, praying that this Amendment may not be ratified by our state legislature, have been presented to that body. Proud, free Pennsylvania scorns the base proposition made to her by corrupt and reckless politicians, to sell her precious birth-right for the bitter mess of pottage which GRANT, in turn, may give, in the shape of offices, to a few of her recreant children. She will not entertain the thought of so dastard a surrender. But her legislature is rotten to the core. Already one branch, the Senate, has yielded to the proposition of Congress and the edict of the military President. The XVth Amendment has passed the Senate, by a strict party vote, all the Republican Senators voting for its ratification, and all the Democratic Senators voting for its rejection. Even our own STUTZMAN was whipped into the traces and voted to force Negro Suffrage upon the people of this Senatorial district and to rob his native State of her God-given right to control and regulate the matter of suffrage within her own borders. The House will also ratify the Amendment, and Messrs. LONGENECKER and WELLER will vote for it, although they are well aware that three fourths of their constituents are bitterly and unalterably hostile to its adoption. Thus do the Radical leaders and legislators deceive and defraud their own party. Thus do they take SNAP JUDGMENT against the people upon a question which they assured us the people alone should decide. We ask the Republicans of Bedford county, how can they sustain their representatives in the legislature in this betrayal of the masses of their own party?

HUNDREDS of the best men of the Republican party in this county, as well as elsewhere throughout the State, have signed remonstrances against the ratification of the proposed XVth Amendment. In this they differ most decidedly from the leaders of their party, and are in perfect accord with the Democrats. Grant recommends the adoption of the Amendment; so does Geary, and the radicals of the Pennsylvania legislature all vote accordingly. The Anti-Negro Suffrage Republicans, therefore, can go nowhere else than to the Democratic ranks. The distinction of "White Republican" and "Black Republican" is now being rapidly made by and among Republicans themselves. The former must either give up their principles or go with the Democrats. We extend to them a cordial invitation to unite with us in the great struggle for the rights of the people which is about to come. That there is no prejudice among Democrats against such Republicans is proved by the fact that they are recognized and treated as brothers of the same faith.

AN EXCELLENT TICKET.

The Democrats of Bedford Borough have put in nomination a first-rate ticket, which should receive the support of every Democrat and many Republicans of the Borough. Let there be a full turn-out on Friday.

GOOD NOMINATIONS.

The sterling Democracy of Bedford tp., have nominated a ticket of good men for township officers. We hope our friends will see to it that it is triumphantly elected.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN, in his anxiety to relieve himself of Cameron, sent him to Russia. Cameron improves on the hint, and to get rid of Curtin, has persuaded Grant to send him there, too. Russia is a very good country for purposes of banishment.

A Writer in the Independent styles Horace Greely a man of "sweet speech"!

THE NEW CABINET.

The First Cabinet of Grant, after a brief existence of less than one week, has gone to pieces. The new appointments, as announced by telegraph from Washington, are as follows: Ex-Governor Hamilton Fish, of New York, as Secretary of State; ex-Governor George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, as Secretary of the Treasury, (in lieu of A. T. Stewart declined,) and General Rawlins, late chief of General Grant's staff, as Secretary of War. Mr. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, named and confirmed as Secretary of State, and who, it was understood, had excepted the position only temporarily, having withdrawn, was confirmed to be United States minister to France, in place of General Dix, whose resignation had been received previously and accepted. General Scofield, who has been superseded by General Rawlins, it will be remembered held over from the previous administration, and remained in the War Office temporarily, at General Grant's instance.

THE NEW CONGRESS.

In the Senate of the Forty-first Congress there are nine Democrats, forty-five Republicans, ten carpet-baggers, and two scalawags. Eight seats, belonging to Virginia, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas, are unfilled. In the House there are seventy-one Democrats, one hundred and twenty-four Republicans, seven carpet-baggers, and three scalawags. Connecticut, New Hampshire and Georgia are without representation at present, but each state will elect representatives the second week in April. The other unrepresented states are Virginia, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas. The two-thirds majority which the Radicals had in the last House is wiped out, and unless the old tactics of expelling Democrats be resorted to, the present Congress will be unable to pass any measure over a veto.

A BAD INDICATION.

From all quarters we hear of great numbers of the industrious citizens of Pennsylvania preparing to migrate to the West and South. This is especially the case in the central part of the State, whilst in the leading agricultural counties the transfers of real estate, and the public sales of farm and stock and other personal property are more numerous than ever before. This is not a healthy sign by any means. It denotes a restless discontent entirely foreign to the staid and frugal habits of Pennsylvanians.

There must be cause for all this. These citizens must have a hope of improving their condition, or of escaping present burthens, or perhaps both. It is evident they are not contented with their present lot. If not, what is wrong, and who is to blame? Our soil is of the best quality, and there is an abundance of land yet to be brought under cultivation. A market yielding the highest prices for all the products of the farm and the diary is always at hand, so that, if blessed with equal laws, it is difficult to imagine how our farmers can expect to improve their condition elsewhere. So of other industrial interests. The man of industry, no matter what may be his particular occupation, ought to do as well in Pennsylvania as in any other State.

Then why so much complaint, and why so much evidence of discontent? Let our law-makers answer, and apply the remedy. They can do it; but will they? Alas we fear not. The splendid dreams of the aristocrats of half a century ago promise to be realized, and the "Government is to take care of the rich, in order that the rich may take care of the poor."

So far as we have been able to learn, good tickets have been formed for the local offices in the several districts of this county. We trust that, the Democracy will give them their hearty and undivided support. Let no man falter in this hour of peril, when our enemies are centralizing power and denying the PEOPLE the RIGHT to vote on the most important question that has ever been before the country. Stand by your guns!

THE TENURE-OF-OFFICE ACT.—The repeal of this infamous act passed the House a few days ago, and came up in the Senate on the 10th, where, after prolonged discussion, it was referred to a special committee of eight. The opponents of a repeal think they have gained by this movement. The mongrelists not willing to trust Grant with any more power than they allowed Johnson to exercise, unless sure of their power to manage him.

SAYS Wendell Philips, "if we were in the Senate we would confirm no man for any office from any Southern State," etc.; to which Grant gracefully responds by sending in the name of the notorious Confederate leader, General Longstreet, to be Surveyor of Customs at New Orleans.

THE New York Herald thinks there will be war between Grant and the Radicals of the Senate. Should they d stroy each other the country would be "all the better for it."

FAREWELL ADDRESS OF ANDREW JOHNSON.

We publish on our first page, this week, the farewell address of Andrew Johnson to the people of the United States. It is the cap-sheaf to what the retiring President has done within the last four years in the advocacy of constitutional liberty. It is an honest, frank and truthful exposition of his measures and purposes as President, and administers a terrible rebuke to his enemies and slanderers.

MASSACHUSETTS has two members of the Cabinet, and her two Senators are at the head of important Committees of the Senate. The twelve Senators from New England have Chairmen for eight of the principal Committees, whilst Pennsylvania, with a population equal to all of New England, can afford but one. Nothing like being of the Yankee nation, particularly of Boston.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer, says: "Let us have peace.' One of the first acts of President Grant was to order General Sheridan to New Orleans, among a people that he oppressed, and who consequently hate him. The President could have committed no greater outrage on their feelings, and, of course, cannot but secure their ill-will instead of their kind regards. 'Let us have peace' is to be treated like the suffrage plank of the Chicago platform—as good enough before the election, but worthless after.

Ex-Gov. Brownlow comes to Washington and Ex-President Johnson goes back to Tennessee. What a strange thing it would be, if, before the end of President Grant's Administration, Johnson should come back to Washington to take his seat in the U. S. Senate, by the side of Brownlow.—Stranger things have happened.

SAYS a New York letter of Monday: The Democrats here feel quite satisfied at the turn things have taken, and already their few stray sheep, who, in November last, voted for Grant out of "patriotism," are disgusted with their man, and ready once more to enter the good old fashioned Democratic fold.

The rush of office-beggars at Washington is unprecedented. Never was there such a crowd before. It takes in all, from the anxious seekers after Missions, Consulships, down to bootblacks to cabinet officers.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

General Butler, on Friday last, introduced to Secretary Boutwell a colored man from New Orleans named Soubert, and recommended him for appointment as assessor of internal revenue in that city. Soubert said he did not desire the office from pecuniary considerations, but merely asked it to test the disposition of the party in power as to the rights of his race.

PHILADELPHIA.

[Correspondence to the Bedford Gazette.]

I. O. O. F.

It may interest some of your readers to know that immense preparations are being made by the I. O. O. F. for the Semi-Centennial Anniversary in April next. It is estimated that 40,000, (that's large, but so "they" say) in full regalia, will be in procession. "May we be there to see." But when it comes off, we hope to give you an extended account. Now we imagine Bedford is putting herself in order to attend, in white gloves, white aprons and high beavers, and shining yokes, headed by our friend Dr. H., the Grand Archon, (Is that the word?) and keeping step with 40,000! We can say to the members there that, they can come with the full expectation of something grand, and we guarantee them entire realization. At least, we, who are outside, can hear the note of preparation and notice an activity commensurate with all that is proposed. We believe the Order to be in the advance in membership of any other beneficial Society in this country, and it deserves all the prosperity that has attended it. The Semi-Centennial will give it another shove in the right direction. May its shadow, like its virtues, increase.

FAIRMOUNT PARK.

We write of the Park, because to-day (Mar. 9th) we feel like the fever for country glimpses has us. It is a grand day, warm, mellow and shiny, and every body is out on promenade. We have had a fast drive through Fairmount, and know something of its "magnificent distances," and enjoyed scenes such as we used to amid the "everlasting hills" and wild grandure of your county. You can drive in this Park a distance the same as from Bedford to Schellsburg. The scenery is varied and exceedingly romantic.—Along the Wissahickon, when Summer is in full robe, you will see, not only "Lovers' Retreats" in abundance, but also weird nooks nestling under bending pines, and moss grown coverts where the warm sun rays coquette with the leaves of the trees, and a nice little handful of air toys with the waving grass. There is no need of scooping our little pools and basins for lakes, as they do in the Central Park, N. Y., or constructing artificial water-brooks, or mending up with Art what Nature has neglected to do. It is just as you want it, not a flower garden or "posy bed," but a grand, rugged, original piece of old nature where you may get rid of "pent up Utica," and breathe full breakers of fresh air, and get great thoughts and feel a better spirit.

What a blessing such a place is to tired bodies, and pained eyes, and over-worked minds! Woods, waters and rocks always carry in them an inspiration and power; and that city which has the most loop holes like these enjoys the highest spiritual and physical superiority. Philadelphia is dotted all over with cosy little parks where you can rest from the heat and bustle of the streets, and where little children can play with the squirrels and deer or drive the hoop over the shaded walks; but in Fairmount you can enjoy a broader sweep with a team at any pace over the gravelled roads, under the great old pines and row along the banks of the river with its graceful curves and solemn steps, and come back from this feast of Nature, wiser, better and happier. Truly it was a dictate of pure humanity to secure this ground from the inroads of brick, mortar and marble, and hedge it for the comfort and health of the inhabitants.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

When Mercury went down last week, Rink balls went up, and a grand time the skaters had. But up goes the quicksilver again, and down go the balls. And so we may see how the world wags.

The death warrant of Twitchell has been signed by the Governor. It was reported that he had made a confession, but that is not certain. There is no doubt some revelations have been made to his spiritual adviser, but the nature of them are not yet communicated.

We were at the opening of Homer's dry good establishment on Chestnut last week. The building is a marble front, five stories high and one of the most elegant in the city. There was a continuous crowd pouring in and out during the entire day, and the scene and array, with the fashion and costly attire of the lady visitors, was such as is seldom witnessed.

The Belmont Grammar School on 41st near Myrtle, was opened with appropriate and interesting ceremonies to day, consisting of addresses, recitatsons, dialogues, etc. interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. The building is four stories high, of gray stone, massive in structure, and surrounded with a large campus. This part of the city contains some of the most elegant private edifices to be found, and is rapidly filling up.

We are in the reign of mud. Crossings buried under mud. Pavements and streets deluged in mud. You are splashed with mud. Red balmorals are furbelowed with mud. Mud on dainty gaiters. Mud on your hat. Mud all over. Boot blacks are in glee: Hurrah for mud! They are coining the dimes. And Mayor Fox, with a sharp stick, in muddy boots, is after the street cleaners who have stuck in the mud.

The Commercial Exchange Association dedicated their new hall, the Chamber of Commerce, on last Monday a week. It is on the corner of Second and Gothic, and in extent and beauty rivals anything of the kind in the city. From the energy and liberality manifested by this association, it is confidently expected that the commercial interests of the city will be rapidly enhanced.

W. P. Schell & Sons, formerly of Bedford, have opened an office on Walnut st. No. 410, as agents for Real Estate and Life Insurance. We wish them success.

I want to rouse each sleepy head,
Who stand upon the brink,
Where yawning gulfs disclose the dead,
Who might, but did not, think.

I want to warn the living ones
Who blindly grope along,
Ye fathers, daughters, mothers, sons,
What perils round you throng!

Look out, my reader, are you free,
Or do you wear the mark?
Most all are blind and cannot see,
Yea, groping in the dark.

Catarrh, a demon in the head,
Consumption is its son;
Kills hosts, yea, countless millions, dead,
Perhaps you may be one.

That hacking, hawking, spitting, shows,
Catarrh effects your head,
Matter and slime in throat or nose,
Runs down your throat instead.

Your lungs and liver soon will show,
Consumption has its birth;
Catarrh, its sire, will feed it too,
'Till you return to earth.

If colds affect your head and throat,
ANNIHILATOR buy;
Now don't forget what I have wrote,
Or think this subject dry.

WOLCOTT'S ANNIHILATOR cures
Catarrh—the demon flies;
It saves the lungs, good health insures,
And Catarrh quickly dies.

I want to gratify my friends,
Who wish to understand
About PAIN PAINT, its use, its ends,
And why its great demand.

I want to show you, plain as day,
Why PAIN PAINT stops all pain,
That you may never have to say
"I'll not try paint again."

PAIN PAINT will cool but never stain;
Pumps inflammation out;
'Tis harmless on the breast or brain,
A trial stops all doubt.

When inflammation leaves the frame,
All pain will cease at once;
Remove the cause, 'tis all the same;
None doubts unless a dunce.

The pores will ope and drink PAIN PAINT
Absorbents fill with ease;
Restores the weak, the sick, the faint,
The greatest skeptic please.

Evaporation cools the place
As inflammation flies;
Hot blood at the absorbent's base
Makes PAINT in vapor rise.

'Tis thus PAIN PAINT removes all doubt,
Removes the very cause
By pumping inflammation out;
On this we rest our cause.

Wolcott's Pain Paint is sold at all Drug Stores; also, Wolcott's Annihilator, for the cure of Catarrh and Colds in the head. Sent by express on receipt of the money, at 181 Chatham Square, N. N. R. L. Wolcott, Prop. feb26w

Home and Around.

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP R.R.—WINTER ARRANGEMENT.—TIME TABLE.—On and after Sept. 16th, passenger trains will arrive and depart as follows:

Mail Train leaves Mt. Dallas at 1.10 p. m., arrives at Huntingdon at 4.21 p. m.; leaves Huntingdon at 9.05 a. m., and arrives at Mt. Dallas at 12.18 a. m.

Accommodation Train leaves Saxton 7.30 a. m., and arrives at Huntingdon, at 9.20 a.m.; leaves Huntingdon at 4.35 p. m., and arrives at Saxton at 6.27 p. m.

The velocipede mania has reached Chambersburg. When Bedford is to be similarly afflicted remains to be seen.

A train of carts passed through this place from Sand Patch tunnel, last week. We wish we could have written this local with the t left out in carts.

Job M. Shoemaker, our enterprising neighbor, has broken ground for a new three story building, to be erected the coming season.

Mrs. Matthias, an aged widow lady, of Somerset, was so horribly burned, by her clothes taking fire, one evening last week, that she died the next day.

Fulton county, like Bedford, has railroad on the brain. Come down handsomely with the "stamps," gentlemen, and your brightest hopes will be realized.

The Johnstown Democrat comes to us enlarged to an eight column paper. The Democrat is a live institution and deserves the success which it seems to enjoy.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Hull, living near Schellsburg, died suddenly on last Thursday evening. During the day he was at work as usual, took sick that evening, and by morning was a corpse. Surely, "in the midst of life we are in death."

Geo. W. Williams, Esq., of Napier, in a letter in last week's Inquirer, suggests the propriety of passing an act "to allow (or compel) a tax to be levied on the townships most interested" in the proposed railroad from this place to Bridgeport.

The correspondence on the Senatorial question which was handed to us last week, for publication, will be found in this issue. It will be seen that the "happy family" have a few jars occasionally, which must be anything but pleasant to the members thereof. The correspondence speaks for itself. Read it.

WE have received from Messrs. Dick & Fitzgerald, Publishers, New York, "The Book of Tableaux and Shadow Pantomimes," containing a choice collection of living pictures, moving tableaux, charades in tableaux, &c., together with directions for arranging stage, costuming character and forming groups.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This interesting juvenile looks bright, quaint, and saucy as ever, in a new colored cover, that will set all the children wild with delight. Among its features are a kite, a puzzle picture, and lots of stories and charades. A "Resolve Club" is the latest editorial novelty, and each subscriber who joins it receives a badge. No wonder the children like Young America. Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y., $1.50 per year. Send 10cts, for a specimen.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—This is justly called the "Queen of the Monthlies." It is the only real woman's magazine in America. It is full of good, sound sense, and practical information. It gives away money value in its valuable full-sized patterns with every issue, and it contains a mine of interest to every woman in its "Ladies' Club." Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y., $3.00 per year. Send 15 cents for a specimen.

PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY.—The march number of Peters' Musical Monthly is at hand, and contains some twenty-four pages of Choice New Music, giving selections from the most popular writers, and variety enough to suit the most fastidious. We notice, first, a beautiful little ballad, with Chorus, by J. S. Cox, entitled "Left All Alone." Then follows a Sacred Song by George Leach, entitled "The Lord will Provide." "Coraline," by the Nation's Song-Writer, Will S. Hays, comes next. This is followed by a sprightly Comic Song entitled "The Young Widow." There are also three Instrumental pieces. In addition to the above, Mr. Peters gives fifteen pages of choice family Reading, and all for the moderate sum of 30 cents, or $3 per year—over $3 worth of New Music appearing in each number. Those of our musical friends who do not subscribe are certainly losing a rich treat, as $40 worth of music cannot be bought every day for such a small sum. Issued by J. L. PETERS, Music Publisher, P. O. Box 5429, New York.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Farmers who Manufacture and Sell Flour to be Taxed.—A gentleman of this county recently addressed to Commissioner Rollins the following inquiry: "Can a farmer get his grain manufactured into flour and wholesale or retail the same without license?" To this the annexed reply has been received:

Sir: Your letter of the 26th ultimo, in relation to the liability of farmers who sell flour manufactured from their own wheat, has been received. I reply that though a farmer may, without liability to special tax, sell his grain or other farm products, either at the place of production, or while travelling about from place to place in the manner of a peddler, yet his exemption is limited by the law to the products of his own farm; and therefore, when he has grain floured at the mill, or manufactured into flour, it being no longer a farm product, but a manufactured article, the farmer would be liable to special tax, the same as any other person, either as a dealer or peddler, according as he may sell the same, from any fixed place where he may keep it for sale or sell while travelling about from place to place in the manner of a peddler, and without regard whether he may sell in small quantities or by the wagon load.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS HARLAND,
Deputy Commissioner.

MUTUAL CORRESPONDENCE.—The Senatorial question.

ON THE HOUSE-TOP, Feb. 23, 1869.

DEAR MACLAY:—"Who shall be our next Senator" has caused a tremendous agitation here, equal to an oil excitement, and as you are the only available person for that position, please allow the use of your name at once. Time is hurrying us on to the ides of March. Give us your views at length, and we will have them published in our valuable paper, the "Screech-owl of Freedom." GEORGE.

IN THE VALE, March 1, 1869.

DEAR GEORGE:—Yours of the 23d ult., reached me while I was trying a case, before Justice Jones, involving the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office Act. I am glad that you have acted upon my suggestion, as it affords me a magnificent opportunity of saying a thing or two which I otherwise could not have done. The so-called "original Republicans" shall hear from me. They shall learn that the spirit of Willian Maclay, of whom I am a lineal descendant, and whose cognomen I so proudly bear, shall stand up for its rights. But I am loathe to say that your candidate I cannot be. Briefly allow me to assign my reasons. In the first place, you must know that I have had the honor thrust upon me by his loyal Highness, the Governor of this great commonwealth of four millions of souls, to revise certain laws, for which I am paid the paltry sum of five thousand dollars a year. This "legislative job" may take years of toil. But there are other more powerful reasons. The aforesaid "original Republicans" have placed themselves in "battle array" against the aspirations of all who lately joined their ranks for the sole purpose of riding into power. They are "making faces" at us when we but ask pay for the sacrifices we made to save their wanning cause from utter ruin. This is the "unkindest cut of all." Didn't Cessna, Spooney Butler and myself, the very best material of the Democracy come over and make the "Republican" party respectable? Didn't we cry "Copperhead" like the very old scratch? And as I, on former occasions, went about to prove the divinity of one of the "relics of barbarism," so am I even now ready to get down on my knees and eat dirt with one of Butler's spoons. Yea, more, I am ready to acknowledge "the universal brotherhood of man"—that is to say, there is no difference between me and the other colored folks. In all conscience, I ask, should more be required to make me intensely loyal. But this subject is unpleasant to dwell upon. We should have no family jars. The Democracy without are getting too confounded strong—we can't afford it. Allow me to add one thing more. If I am to be deprived of the "spoils," I feel determined that Washabaugh and Mullin shall also be left in the cold. I have just discovered that Bedford county is not entitled to the candidate, this being Fulton's turn. So these fellows might just as well quit.

Please say to my friends, that for the reasons above stated, I am no candidate. The look ahead is dark to me. I feel constrained to decline. I am doomed. Renegade Democrats have had their day. Farewell to all my aspirations! "No Irish need apply."

MACLAY.

There is no mistake about it, Plantation Bitters will ward off Fever and Ague and all kindred diseases, if used in time. No family need suffer from this distressing complaint if they will keep Plantation Bitters in the house, and use it according to directions. The most important ingredient of this medicine is Calisaya or Peruvian Bark, which is known to be the finest and purest tonic in the vegetable kingdom. The extract of this Bark is the active principle of all the good Fever and Ague Medicines prescribed by intelligent doctors. Calisaya Bark is used extensively in the manufacture of Plantation Bitters, as well as quinine, and we dare say they owe their popularity mostly to that fact. We can reccommend them.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.
SCHEETZ'S
CELEBRATED
BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

A Safe Blood Purifier,
A Splendid Tonic,
A Pleasant Beverage,
A CERTAIN CURE
AND PREVENTIVE OF DISEASES.

The ZINGARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician DR. CHEOPSUS, who, after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zingari Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production, the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with the other valuable properties of which the Zingari Bitters is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness &c., &c.

In the PREVENTION and CURE of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after their cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE.
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cure effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the
